

WHAT IS CLAIMED IS:

A new and distinct cultivar of Impatiens plant named 'Balfusglo' substantially, as herein shown and described, which:

1. Exhibits single, cupped, yellow-colored flowers,
2. Forms medium green-colored foliage,
3. Exhibits a good basal branching character, and
4. Exhibits an upright and mounded growth habit.